From the Principal...

Dear Saint Robert Bellarmine Families,

Happy last week of school! I cannot believe how quickly this school year has come to a close. Just a few reminders before the end of the year.

If you have not ordered your school supplies for next year through School Kidz please do so before tomorrow. Tomorrow is the last day to place orders. This is a great way to get your shopping done early and earn some money for our school!

Tonight is our Wrap-up Festival Meeting at 6 p.m. Join us to hear about the success of our festival!

Again, thank you very much for a fantastic year. When I look at our test results our students have grown tremendously over this year and I know they have also grown spiritually and socially. The teachers and I are grateful for your confidence and partnership this year.

Remember, if you refer a family who registers for next school year, we will take $500 off your tuition.

Many blessings to your family this summer. I hope everyone has a restful summer break and comes back renewed and refreshed for a new school year.

Many Blessings,

Annette Riggio
