From the Principal...

Dear Saint Robert Bellarmine Families,

This week's Gospel tells the story of two sons and their obedience to their father. In this story Jesus is telling us that it is never too late to follow Him. Often times we can hastily make decisions and later realize they do not follow what we truly believe or how God would want us to respond. Jesus is telling us in this Gospel that it is never too late to change our mind.

This Friday is the feast day of St. Michael. We are celebrating in a special way. St. Michael is the patron saint of police officers. At Mass we are joining together with the SIREN group from our parish to offer a special Mass for first responders. I am happy we can participate in this liturgy and offer prayers for the men and women who keep us safe every day. All are welcome to join us. There will be light reception following Mass.

We will have a holiday boutique on November 19th. If you know of anyone who would like to host a booth, please come get an application in the office. We would like to have as many vendors as possible and make it a successful boutique.

Progress reports will go home next week. Please use this time to check on your child's progress. However, I encourage you to use Gradelink and check it regularly. The Gradelink app makes it even easier to keep up to date. If you have any questions about the assignments listed, please contact your child's teacher.

Many Blessings,

Annette Riggio
